Lesson 12 – The Question Phrase

Before beginning the written practice, here's a grammar note to keep in mind when practicing. If the phrase est-ce que is followed by a word that starts with a vowel, remove the e at the end of the question phrase, put an apostrophe in its place and merge it with the following word. For example, if est-ce que is followed by elle, merge the question phrase and the word like this:

Est-ce qu'elle....?

Translate these phrases to French using the question phrase from lesson 12:
